

Tianhui ZHANG Partner

Capital Markets | PE/VC, M&A

+86 152 1074 0386

tianhui.zhang@meritsandtree.com

Beijing

Tianhui Zhang is a partner at Merits&Tree Law Offices. Prior to joining M&T, she worked at an advertising company and a renowned law firm.

Ms. Zhang specializes in capital markets, investment, financing, and M&A. Since 2015, she has been engaged in the a range of industries, including media, aerospace, bio-pharmaceuticals and health, defense and military industry, high-end equipment manufacturing, new energy, environmental protection, logistics, and IoT. She has provided daily and specialized legal services for the restructuring, listing and spin-offs, investment and financing, and acquisition reorganizations of numerous large and medium-sized enterprises and listed companies in China.

Ms. Zhang boasts a deep understanding of capital markets practice and has a profound understanding of regulatory concepts and the client needs at different stages. She has extensive experience in securities offering and listing, M&A, and investment financing, and has provided high-quality legal services for the listings of several companies on different boards and has participated in several innovative and landmark corporate listing and M&A deals. She offers professional legal advice on external investments, refinancing, and information disclosure for listed companies. She also provides legal services for many PE fund investments, post-investment management, and exit management projects. In addition to her professional legal knowledge, Ms. Zhang has a deep understanding and awareness of business logic, enabling her to provide clients with precise solutions in complex projects, earning the trust of her clients.

Education

LL.B., China University of Political Science and Law

LL.M., International University of Law and Business in South Korea

Admissions

PRC Bar

Language

Chinese, English