

Fangfang GUI Partner

Family Law and Wealth Management | Dispute Resolution

+86 21 5253 3427

fangfang.gui@meritsandtree.com

Shanghai

Fangfang Gui is a partner at Merits&Tree Law Offices. Prior to joining M&T, she has worked as a partner in several law firms.

Her main practice area is family services and wealth management. She has successfully represented nearly a thousand litigation cases, both domestic and international, involving divorce, inheritance, property division, and equity disputes. Her work has garnered significant media attention, particularly for high-profile divorce cases involving founders and shareholders of well-known company, and the first-ever national dispute regarding the surrogacy twins inheritance.

As a legal advisor to several private banks, Ms. Gui has guided hundreds of high-net-worth clients through marital wealth planning and inheritance planning. Her expertise has been recognized by the All China Lawyers Association, which has invited her input on legislative suggestions for the Book 5 Marriage & Family and Book 6 the Succession within the PRC Civil Code. She has also contributed to Practical Commentary on the Civil Code published by Peking University Press. She is a columnist for newspapers and magazines such as Wealth Management, Marriage and Family, and China Women's News, and has published seven popular books like How Law Protects the Family, 200 Wealth Management Tips in the Civil Code, and 100 Hot Issues on Protection of Women's Rights and Interests Law.

Achievements

- Represented the shareholders of a well-known company in a divorce dispute, successfully mediating between the parties to avoid a deadlock in the company's operations
- Handled the first-in-the-nation surrogacy twins inheritance dispute case, securing a favorable judgment on behalf of the client
- Acted as counsel in a will inheritance dispute involving a well-known artist, winning an appeal and achieving a revised judgment
- Served as a legal advisor for the private banking division of a bank for many years, assisting hundreds of high-net-worth clients
- Acted as a training instructor for several financial institutions, delivering nearly a thousand training sessions

Honors

- 🏆 2025 The Legal 500 Private Wealth - Recommended Lawyer
- 🏆 2025 China Business Law Journal The A-list: Rising Stars

Social Positions

- Member of the 10th Marriage and Family Law Committee, All China Lawyers Association
- Vice President of The Association of Fuzhou Legal Personnel in Shanghai

Education

- LL.M., Fuzhou University
- LL.B., Fuzhou University

Admissions

PRC Bar

Language
